

How to Set Up a Medicare.gov Account

If you would like to do it yourself, here are the steps you'll need to take.

1. Gather your Medicare card and a pen/pencil and paper.
2. Log on to Medicare.gov.
3. Scroll down to mid page until you see a banner on the left that says Log In/Create Account.
4. On this page you can hit create an account now.
 - A. Medicare number with capital letters.
 - B. Your last name
 - C. Your email address and confirmation of email address.
 - D. Date of birth.

E. Zip code.

F. Part A coverage start date. (You can find this information on your Medicare card.)

5. Next, you'll need to check 2 boxes and click "Next."

6. The next screen will ask you to think of and enter a username. Please write it down.

7. Then, you'll need to think of and enter a password. Please write it down.

A. Confirmation of your password.

B. Secret question. (You'll use arrows to choose one)

C. Secret answer. (Please write it down)

D. Click submit.